Seeking Young Archers Dreaming of Gold

If you are a youth athlete, born in 2005, 2006, or 2007, and you shoot in the compound, recurve or barebow categories, then consider trying out for your Zone team and attending the BC Winter Games! See our webpage for the most recent updates.

Talk to your coach or club administrator to see how to prepare for Trials this fall. Trials are held in each Zone in late November / early December.

For those of you that may be just starting out, and are born in 2007, 2008 or 2009, you can start training now for the 2024 Games to be held in Quesnel! Read the media announcement, which includes a few words from our president.

Thank you to all the Zone coaches that have committed to bringing a team to the Games. You are an integral part of helping youth archers experience a multi-sport games and make lifetime memories.

Compound Team - Pan Am Championships

Congratulations to BC's Jordan Adachi for being selected to Canada's compound team. The Pan American Championships is an important competition for compound archers as it offers the greatest opportunity to qualify for the 2023 Pan American Games.

2022 Para Pan Am Championships Team

Congratulations to Kevin Evans who was selected to Canada's para team for the Para Pan Am Championships and Para Pan Am Games Qualifier in Santiago, Chile. BC's Linda Price is coaching that team. Best of luck!

Targeted Athlete Program - Deadline November 30!

The application deadline for our Targeted Athlete Program is approaching. This program is aimed at athletes and coaches who are progressing through the Podium Pathway, and provides benefits and support from partnerships with CSI and PacificSport.

The program is open to both recurve and compound equipment categories.

Please submit your applications before the deadline of Nov 30th! Notifications to athletes and their coaches will be sent out in the next few months.
